1. Purpose

Effective 06/22/2026, producers will be required to use DocuSign as the approved method for signing and agreeing to quote terms when requesting to bind a Commercial Lines Auto policy.

This document explains what producers should expect when they receive a quote package and how to complete the DocuSign signing process.

2. What Is Changing

Producers should no longer return signed quote documents by manual signature, scanned copy, wet signature, or other informal methods unless specifically instructed otherwise.

3. When DocuSign Is Required

DocuSign must be used when the producer is agreeing to the quote terms and moving forward with request to bind.

4. What Producers Will Receive

Producers will receive an email containing the quote package and DocuSign signing instructions.

The email may include:

- The quote documents
- Instructions for review the quote terms
- A DocuSign link to prompt signing

5. Producer Steps to Complete Signing

- 1) Open the quote package email from Prime
- 2) Review the quote terms
- 3) Select the DocuSign link to prompt signing process

Effective June, 22 2026 all bind documents are required to be sent and signed via DocuSign. To sign your documents and begin your policy bind process, click on the URL below. You will be prompted to DocuSign your quote forms via email.

For exceptions to electronic signing requirements, please contact bind@primeis.com.
