COST-EFFECTIVE ENTRY INTO TELEMATICS

Help Protect Your Business With Telematics

National Interstate and Vanliner are excited to provide a telematics offering specifically for fleets with 20 units or less. By installing a simple device in your fleet of vehicles, you can gain access to real-time data which can measure vehicle performance and track driver behaviors. These data-driven insights can help you improve your operations, enhance your safety initiatives, prevent claims, and benchmark your performance.

Benefits of Telematics

- Improve operations – Data insights can aid in correcting driver behaviors, improving trainings, and benchmarking against the industry
- Realtime Access to Data – Know exactly where your vehicles are and get live performance metrics to make informed decisions
