National Interstate Preferred Driver Guidelines

Applicable to full-time, part-time and occasional drivers

All Drivers Must:

- Have verifiable MVRs
- Meet all DOT standards and maintain a commercial driver's license (CDL) - if applicable
- Be at least 22 years of age
- Have a minimum of two years U.S. driving experience
- Have a minimum of two years commercial driving experience or the company has a National Interstate approved CDL Finishing Program

Acceptable Driving Records Consist of:

- Up to three minor violations and zero accidents in the last 36 months
- Up to two minor violations and one not at-fault accident in the last 36 months
- No major violations in the last five years
 - Major violations include, but are not limited to: DUIs, reckless driving, distracted driving, cell phone usage and major speeding violations.
- Medical examination report must be provided for any driver over the age of 65 or that has continuing health problems

We underwrite the operation's management through an assessment of the drivers as a group relative to the overall quality of the MVRs, years of experience, turnover and driver age profile. We expect the operation to adhere to all federal and statutory regulations.

If you have any questions regarding driver eligibility, please contact your agent or National Interstate Representative at truckserviceteam@natl.com.
